Africa . . .

My native land

My heritage,

The land that bore me

The land that gave me strength/dignity/pride.

And I suppose I should be proud and defiant —

And join in the "Back to Africa" campaigns

And dress as my ancestors dressed

Speak with the tongues that they spoke

Live as they lived . . .

And be proud.

But you know —

I'm not so much interested in where I came from

As I am in where I'm going.

J. Denise

FOREWORD

Our annual, The Bull is a pictorial consummation of beautiful memories of the school year 1975-76. To some, it represents the totalness of a year spent at Johnson C. Smith University. To others, it represents certain memorable situations never to be forgotten. Still to others, it represents periods of strife and achievements. Above all, it is the final product representing all Smith-ites, indicating a year well spent at Dear Ole Smith.

Johnson C. Smith University is more than just an institution. While giving us intellectual stimulation, she has helped us to become better people. Johnson C. Smith has helped us to prepare for one of the most important days of our lives — tomorrow. She has helped us to discover that we choose our next world through what we learn in this one. We decide for ourselves what roads we will travel and what our destination will be. Our astrological signs merely direct our daily patterns. They don't determine our destiny. We can change the world only by changing ourselves. Brothers and Sisters, the future is not in the hands of fate . . . but in ourselves.

"Janice"

The Future Is Not In the Hands of Fate.

But In Ourselves.

DEDICATION

There have been in all ages, in all civilizations, and in all cultures men who, in life, walk taller than those who walk beside them. In the microcosm of Johnson C. Smith University there is such a man. A man who continues to grow in "wisdom and stature" to us, who has carried our problems on his shoulders, and who has given us a gift we can never equal, "faith in ourselves." He has been patient and understanding when we cry of dissatisfaction. He knows how to talk with us with knowledge of our wants and needs because he knows us, the students!

We dedicate the 1975-76 edition of The Bull to you, Dr. Jack Brayboy, with admiration and love.

The Bull Staff

Life is a series of games — games of finding answers, finding amusement, persuading people, winning friends, raising families and performing rituals. Some persons relish the game of life and enjoy all the sub-games to the hilt. Others play them grimly, with their eyes fixed on the scoreboard, too much concerned with staying ahead to enjoy the game.

Sometimes we feel that school simply doesn't have much meaning for us if we don't belong to something or to someone.

We go to classes to search for deeper meanings, to see if we can understand more fully our reasons for coming to college.
Surely there must be more to college than textbooks.

So we join a group—
in which we can express ourselves.

An organization in which we can find fulfillment while doing the things we like.

And even though we join countless organizations we do not want to change that which makes us different
And we don't have to change.

We can still be individuals if we wish.

Now! To get this shot!

Syrkett on the job

"You got it buy me again"

"What! Chicken Again!"

"Man, It's been rough."

Womanhood"

EPITOME OF A QUEEN . . .

BLACKNESS

Is Blackness
not wearing white gloves, or socks,
or underwear not eating white flour or sugar
not drinking white milk not sleeping on white sheets not brushing your teeth not using white lights painting woodwork black smoking stuff and drinking stuff to make your eyes not white not liking snow not eating crackers drinking black coffee eating black figs black berries drinking black tea not bleaching clothes or hair or skin is it buying black thinking black reading black fighting black is it the earth or the night

or the inside of ears, or noses
or eyes or the inside of woman is it struggling to survive struggling to exist being happy or sad or honest or lazy or natural is it natural a flower or rain or a storm is it laughter or crying or screaming to be free is it death or life or is it just being beautiful?

MISS JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY

Our reigning Miss Johnson C. Smith University, Patricia C. Lennon is a native of Georgetown, South Carolina. "Pat" is a vivacious 21 year old senior, born under the sign of Gemini, "the woman that cannot be comprehended." A political science major, she hopes to pursue a career in law after graduation.

Her interests are varied. She served as Vice President of her Freshman Class, was recipient of the "Most Talented Award" in 1973 and 1975, has reigned as Miss Lampodos, Miss Omega Psi Phi, Miss Myers Hall and has served on the New Student Orientation Committee. She is a member of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority and of the Student Government Association.

She enjoys meeting people, traveling, sewing her own clothes and most of all, singing.

Pat's philosophy of life is "Yesterday has passed; tomorrow may never come. So live and love each day to its fullest and the world is yours to conquer."

HOMECOMING DAY, for some a sad day when old friends are met. For others the thrill of the crowd and a roar for the mighty BULLS. For us, the Senior Class, its thoughts of this time next year when we will have gone our separate paths. We think of the thrills of half-time and the moment of kickoff. But for nearly everyone it is a time to be merry, a time to forget the pressures of academics and have a fun-filled weekend because Monday morning at eight, the Grind starts again.

DELTAS

Like Violets, Deltas must be individually selected
You cannot grab a handful without damaging some of them.
They cannot be roughly picked or picked in a hurry.

Like Violets, Deltas are not the kind of flower that Shows off its fullest beauty standing alone, but is Naturally gregarious and looks best in natural clusters.

However, Like Violets, the Delta can stand alone and Still reflect beauty.

Statement of Purpose Save and Change Black Schools Committee

The Save and Change Black Schools Committee is a nationally affiliated organization which has become officially established on the campus of Johnson C. Smith University. The fundamental objectives of the SCBSC and the significance of each are expressed below:

1. The Committee emphasizes the importance of education as one tool for expansion of the collective Black consciousness. It urges students to attend classes, to be attentive, to offer solid input to extract knowledge useful in preparation for the future.
2. The Committee stresses the need for Black college graduates to return to their communities and to utilize their relative skills for the direct benefit of the Black masses. It urges college undergraduates to encourage and educate their fellow brothers and sisters to the importance of higher learning in this society.
3. The Committee realizes the need for an increased level of respect in student/student as well as in student/faculty relationships.
4. The Committee advocates unity, and the need for Black people to help one another whenever possible.

The Cottage Players were established in September of 1973 with the ultimate purpose of promoting brotherhood in fulfilling unity and intellectual enlightenment to their fellow university and community brothers and sisters. The organization originated in the cottage located on campus street and therefore established themselves as the "Cottage Players."

Memorial To...

Leonard C. Johnson

Who departed this life November 15, 1975, in Greenville, South Carolina. He was an alumni of Johnson C. Smith University and at the time of his passing he was a junior at the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta, Georgia. While a student at Johnson C. Smith University he was active in many campus organizations which included membership in the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc.

CLASSES

Class Editor — Sandra Williams

"Thousands of men breath, move and live; pass off the stage of life and are heard no more. Why? They did not a particle of good in the world; none were blest by them, none could point to them as the instrument of their redemption; their light went out in darkness, and they were not remembered more than the insects of yesterday. Will you thus live and die, O man immortal? Live for something."

A new year was ours and it, like us, was a fresh slate upon which to write. What we seemed to possess in the most abundant quantities was our idealism. It was good that our awakening came at a time when we were motivated to begin searching for answers to deep-rooted problems, perhaps the only time in our lives when we could call upon so much knowledge, both human and stored, in our impatient quest for solutions.

We have the freedom to be ourselves

POEM TO THE SENIOR CLASS

1975-76

*In the pathway of life,
You stand, young men and women,
Boarding the rocket to trials and strife.
Depart you must; Follow your path;
Swiftly onward to reach your goal!*

*Ascending the steps of the ladder of success;
You have entered the spotlight...
Play well your part!
You have been and shall continue to be Fearless fighters of black and white Infinitely moving to reach your goal!*

*When you shall walk in the broadway of life,
Encumbering the trifles; Mastering the decessits;
When you shall approach the threshold of success,
Look Up! Look forward! Strive On!
For you are about to become the Men and Women of the Hour.*

Emily Green

We played a little game of Exploration
We discovered who we were Where we were going
And what we wanted to become.

Harold Talley President of Senior Class

When a goal has been accomplished there is a tendency to trace the steps which led to that level of achievement. Between rejoicing and lauding the glamour and glory of this moment of fulfillment, the Senior Class of 1976 pauses to reflect on the joys and sorrows, the work and play which we experienced during the four formative years which we spent here at our Alma Mater.

During these four years many of us accepted the challenges and opportunities for laying firm foundations on which satisfying and successful careers can be built. These challenges brought about many changes in us: A larger degree of maturation, a wider scope of concern, a deeper sense of responsibility and greater efficiency in a specific skill to take to the market place, are among the gains achieved while here in this academic community.

We are sincerely grateful to the college family for what it has meant to us and we are equally grateful to our parental families and loved ones for their love, concern, support and encouragement during our four years of striving for this goal. They have understood our challenges and changes for which we will forever be grateful.

May Johnson C. Smith University continue to build firm foundations for worthy participation in the larger society and may we not forget its contributions to us and to respond to its needs.

Reflections and Memoirs

I turn the majestic pages of my memoirs and I see reflections of you, for you have played an important role in my being.

You taught me so much that seemed trivial then,

But now I see

You prepared me for a life of which I was unaware

But now I am alert.

You developed qualities in me that I never knew were there

And now I am competent.

You gave me the incentive to live.

Dear J.C.S.U.

You did so much for me that I can't help but love you for my life is only a reflection of you.

J. Denise

Loyalty Song

*We love thee, Smith with all our hearts!
To thee we'll e'er be true
And in thy light of truth and right
Hold high the Gold and Blue.*

Refrain:

*Proudly we hail thy name, our Alma Mater, old S.U.
Johnson C. Smith, our own!
Our hope, our guiding star,*

*our light unfailing!
Pride of our loyal hearts, we'll love and honor thee our whole lives through On, ever on! dear old J.C.S.U.!*

Fair Smith, where'er on earth we roam

*Send forth thy constant ray
And let it beam with steadfast gleam
To lead us o'er Life's way.*

Our Administration, Faculty and Staff is a body which functions for the good of the students. It is sometimes loudly criticized, but in the final analysis, it is the one unit on our campus responsible for long-range plans to make Johnson C. Smith University bigger and better.

JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA 28216

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

TO: The Class of 1976

GREETINGS:

This year, 1976, finds Americans all across the nation, celebrating the 200th birthday of the United States. For certain of her citizens, the Bi-Centennial celebration mirrors to some degree the hypocrisy that signified the American Revolution and the Declaration of Independence.

A small segment of the Black citizenry are asking the question, why celebrate 200 years of injustice, 200 years of man's inhumanity to man? The question can be answered very simply.

We must celebrate the fact that from 1619, long before the signing of the Declaration of Independence, Blacks were a part of the nation's development. In servitude and later on their own, they tilled the soil and harvested the crops; they built the roads and railroads; they served in the nation's armies at home and abroad. Thus Black Americans, aware of our contribution to the birth, growth and development of this country, predating the arrival of the Mayflower to the present, join in the celebration of the Bi-Centennial because, with all of its imperfections, it is OUR LAND.

And so, in this year, 1976, two hundred years later, as you go out into the world of active adult participation in this society, I hope that you will do your part to make the American Dream a reality.

"America - the land that never has been yet
And yet must be...
The land where every man is free..."

EPILOGUE

Having reviewed the events of the year, I trust you've found them enjoyable. It has been our desire that each of you should find an event that might bring a smile or just a memory. There are errors! None of us are perfect. If your name has been misspelled, misplaced, misused or unintentionally abused, we apologize. No one was placed in this yearbook without a specific purpose. The pictures that were taken captured students who were at the right place at the right time. The staff takes complaints in stride and extends the sincere invitation to the dissatisfied, "Come join the staff and lend us your skills."

Because this year celebrates not only two hundred years of American freedom, but also the advent of the women's revolution, I am proud to have been selected to represent the women of the senior class and the university as editor of the 1975-76 Bull. From my involvement in the production of the Bull my rewards have been numerous. I've learned leadership, responsibility, promptness and to "keep the faith" when problems arise. But most important, I've learned to believe in myself when maybe others don't.

The storms, trials and tribulations have been many, but we, the staff discovered that in unity, there is strength. I wish to thank each member of my staff for the time spent in the production of this annual. I wish to extend special thanks to my right hand assistant, Ann Gupton and to my staff photographers. They were always on the job. Appreciation is extended to Mr. Townes for his assistance in photography and a world of thanks to Mr. Willie Bullock of Delmar Studios who stood by me all the way. But most important, I wish to thank the Senior Class for having complete trust and faith in thinking that I knew what I was doing.

Well Smithites, it's been our baby for eight months. Now it is yours. We hope you will enjoy it and will appreciate our efforts.

Janice Denise Hamlet
Editor-In-Chief

I do my thing, and you do your thing.
I am not in this world to live up to your expectations
And you are not in this world to live up to mine.
You are you and I am I
And if by chance we

It's beautiful . . .

FOOTPRINTS IN THE SANDS OF TIME

We sit and wonder trying to visualize

what life will bring after a solemn decision; oftentimes we wonder if life will have a provision. At this early date it is hard to see what the future holds. Whether we go to the world of work, or continue in the field of learning, the place in society we're looking for will keep our fires burning. With every endeavor, there is hardship — hardship we will surely find, but we have lives before us and we will leave footprints in "the sands of time."

BY MALCOLM BARKSDALE

President of Student Council
